

EDUCATION	PhD in Management (Pursuing)  Indian Institute of Management Shillong 2020 - present <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Area: Organizational Behaviour and Human Resources</li> <li>• Thesis Topic: Effects of man-machine interactions on work performance and career development: An Indian employees' perspective</li> </ul> Post Graduate Diploma in Management (PGDM)  XLRI- Xavier School of Management, Jamshedpur 2014 - 2016 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Specialization: Human Resource Management</li> </ul> Bachelor of Engineering (BE)  Birla Institute of Technology, Mesra, Ranchi 2010 - 2014 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Specialization: Electronics &amp; Communication</li> </ul>
QUALIFICATION	GMAT  November 2019 TOEFL  July 2019
CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Career anchors of vocational behaviour: Self in the Indian societal context” Rakesh A., Murti A.B., Dwivedi R., presented at the British Academy of Management Annual International Conference (BAM 2024) at Nottingham Business School</li> <li>2. Implications of notions of beauty and body image on Indian corporate executives and engineers” Murti A.B., Das K., Rakesh A., presented at the British Academy of Management Annual International Conference (BAM 2023) at University of Sussex Business School</li> </ol>
CONFERENCES	British Academy of Management Annual International Conference (BAM 2024)    Nottingham Business School, United Kingdom 2024 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Paper Title: Career anchors of vocational behaviour: Self in the Indian societal context</li> </ul> British Academy of Management Annual International Conference (BAM 2023)    University of Sussex Business School, United Kingdom 2023 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Paper Title: Implications of notions of beauty and body image on Indian corporate executives and engineers</li> </ul>
SKILLS	Subject Proficiency: Self and Group Dynamics, Team Building and Leadership, Development of Human Capital Research Skills: Regression Analysis, PLS-SEM, Narrative Analysis, Content and Thematic Analysis, Factor Analysis Software: R, SmartPLS, NVivo, VOSViewer